Implementation of agreement with the Delhi University Teachers Association

1221. SHRI SATYA PRAKASH MALAVIYA:
SHRI SAGAR RAYKA:

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government and the University Grants Commission have not honoured the agreement with the Delhi University Teachers at the time of their recent strike;

(b) whether the delay in the implementation of agreed demands has caused discontentment among the teaching community and they are planning to go for another strike;

(c) the measures being taken by Government to avoid another strike by the Delhi University Teachers' Association at a time when the students are preparing for their annual examinations; and

(d) how does the present pay structure of college and University teachers compare with other comparable categories of Government employees?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI): (a) to (d) The understanding reached with Delhi University Teachers Association, on the basis of which the strike was called off, provided for:

(i) Continuance of the Merit Promotion Scheme.

(ii) Improvemnts in the housing facilities.

(iii) Devising a formula for removal of stagnation among Selection Grade Teachers; and

(iv) Consideration of the demand for introduction of Professor's Grade in Colleges.

Action has been taken to implement all these assurances except the last one, namely, introduction of Professor's Grade in Colleges, which is still under consideration. There should, therefore, be no cause for discontentment among the teachers. The Government has no intimation about the DUTA going on strike afresh.

The Mehrotra Committee, on revision of pay scales of teachers in University and Colleges appointed by UGC, has recommended that the pay scales of teachers be revised. The recommendations of the Committee are under consideration of the Government of India.

Rapid deterioration of Ajanta and Ellora Paintings

1222. SHRIMATI BIJOYA CHAKRAVARTY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the article captioned "Monument to Neglect" published in 'India Today' on the 15th March, 1987 wherein it is stated that the cave paintings of Ajanta and Ellora are rapidly deteriorating due to archaeological neglect;
